Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Holland has lived across the street from Tinker Air Force base all her life. She was warned never to date a guy in the military. They ll break your heart or move away. It was never a problem, until she met Tate. He s a musician in the evenings and an air traffic controller during the day. She met him as a musician, never thinking that he was military. Her father is bi-polar and the new medicine isn t working as well as originally thought. She s been taking care of him since she was thirteen, when her mom moved away. Keeping up with the bills and making good grades in her online college courses, is overwhelming at times. It is especially difficult once he finds out she s dating someone in the Air Force. Tate has a way about him, he eases her troubled soul. Holland hasn t had anyone to talk to since her best friend, Andy, died. Tate takes away her loneliness and brings her back to life. They spend hours at the lake, singing...
