As a 3rd generation beauty professional, International platform artist and former Director of Education with L Oreal USA, Jacqueline continues to add layers to her beauty expertise. Her expertise on hair care and hair health is expressed monthly in national columns that reach millions through various publications including Seventeen, Cosmopolitan, Essence the Wall Street Journal to name a few. She has had numerous Style Beauty appearances nationwide on Good Morning America, NBC, CBS, the Fox Network. Jacqueline utilizes cutting edge technology in treatment regime and practices effective methods designed to help men women re-grow hair. Her multi-layered approach to hair loss, known as Quadra-Follicle Stimulation ; the first step is a comprehensive consultation and analysis to determine the individualized course of action for each client. What is the book Healthy Hair Rehab all about? Having grown up in my mother s salons, and experiencing the ups and downs women go through with their hair, I realized early on that any kind of hair trauma could be a game changer for that woman. I also could see how bad hair days or bad hair experiences greatly impacted women s lives. Some even felt depressed and had poor self esteem when their hair was in long term troubled stages. My mother was a natural hair healer and restored the hair and the spirit of those she helped. I knew this is what I wanted to do and made my career all about that; educating on preventive measures, hair care, nutrition to nurture the hair and early...
