Now, when I want to hire a man, 1 always look out for one who has no friends in this part of the country. When his time is about out--and I never have any money for him between whiles--when his time is about out, I trump up some dreadful charge against him, threaten him with the law, etc. The outcome is the man is so frightened he is glad to get away--wages or no wages. Our girls, when we have any, we manage in the same way. Oh, it s easy, after you learn how, and those fellows eat so much anyway, they don t earn more than their board. Various other ways that were dark and tricks that were vain were recited for Gabriel s education. But one...
