Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Zach Roper and the Thai Princess s last adventure Murder Takes a Mulligan got them a lot deeper into Thai politics than they had bargained for. They re confident that they will stay out of Thai politics this time because they re no longer in Thailand, but the good old USA, where politics are much more straightforward and less deadly.or are they? Once again they mean to concentrate strictly on golf, at least when they aren t preoccupied with sex, no murders, no crimes, no politics.no more cases to solve. They get off to a promising start with an invitation to something called a Fiesta de Golfo at a gated community in the Arizona desert where they quickly find that golf takes a back seat to socializing, investment seminars, and booze. Zach has to rescue the Thai Princess as she threatens to drift away on a sea of margaritas and meatballs while the golf action on the duffer-ville course is far less than stellar. Both of them are off their games but they still manage to hustle some bucks from the filthy rich amateurs. The Thai Princess revives her youthful ability to outdrink her female opponents and whip them while in an alcoholic haze, staggering home to Zach with her panties stuffed with loot. After more than a week of too much food, too much booze, almost too much good lovemaking, and too little good golf, Zach tries to drag the Thai Princess away from it all for an early morning practice session so that they won t embarrass themselves in the final round of pro-on-pro competition. She s late, delayed by her search for a pair of...
