Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1848. Excerpt: . . . MEMORIALS OF MRS. ELIZABETH SMITH. Elizabeth Cowper, the subject of the following memoir, was born at Knaresbro, in Yorkshire, in the year 1811. She was the second daughter of the late Mr. William Cowper, a respectable tradesman of that town, and a man highly esteemed by all who knew him. Her parents were members of the Independent congregation in Knaresbro, then under the pastoral care of the Rev. Mr. Howell; and, at a very early age, she was conducted to the house of God. In her maturer years she had a distinct recollection of that venerable Minister, and also of a plain old man, a Deacon of the church, who occasionally preached in Mr. Howells stead. Some of the sermons of the latter made a very deep impression upon her tender mind. Elizabeth was much beloved by her father, and he took special pains...
