Kassia: Life After the Winter Palace (Paperback)

By Douglas Remington

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Amid the toppling Russian Monarchy and World War I, Kassia, a Russian noble, struggles to overcome forbidding circumstances. Early in life she s befriended by a holy man, Father Gregory, a controversial figure whose enemies call him, Rasputin, which means fraud. But Father Gregory has the power to perform miracles, and does so, endearing himself to Kassia and others - including Tzar Nicholas and Tzarina Alexandra. Father Gregory teaches Kassia the, Prayer of Jesus, which is a special Russian, Christian, mystical practice, for protection and happiness. Political intrigue and murder do, however, uproot her privileged life at the Winter Palace, and she s forced to live with relatives in Lisbon. There she meets her hero, John Claude, a French baron whose international banking empire have been confiscated by the Germans in World War I. Their romance seems impossible! The Germans have put a price on John Claude s head! He s badly wounded and thought to be dead. Kassia is kidnapped and about to become a sex slave. Her only protection and consolation is refuge in the, Prayer...
