By Donthi Ravinder

LAP Lambert Academic Publishing Mai 2014, 2014. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 220x150x12 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Developmental programmes of Panchayat Raj Instituttions from the rural rich indicates that they are interested in the share of power at the state and central levels than local. Secondly absence of support from the large majority of the poor makes these institutions not only shallow but non-democratic. Thus the future of institutions like Panchayat Raj is closely inter woven with larger democratic movements. Grass roots democratic institutions can never become visible and vibrant unless the large majority of rural poor become a part of the democratic consciousness and constitute the social base of these institutions future of institutions like Panchayati Raj is closely inter woven with larger democratic movements. Grassroots democratic institutions can never become visible and vibrant unless the large majority of rural poor become a part of the democratic consciousness and constitute the social base of these institutions. 200 pp. Englisch.
