Strategic Plan for Combating Trafficking in Persons (Ctip) 2014 - 2018 (Black and White) (Paperback)

By Department of Defense

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .More than 20 million men, women, and children throughout the world are victims of trafficking in persons. The U.S. Government (USG), which maintains a zero-tolerance policy for government employees and contractors engaging in trafficking in persons, views human trafficking as a serious human rights abuse which is modern-day slavery. DoD policy centers on deterrence of any activities of Service members, civilian employees, indirect hires, contractor personnel, and command-sponsored dependents that facilitate or support trafficking in persons in both domestic and overseas environments. This includes activities such as enabling prostitution or patronizing a prostitute, even though such activities may be legal within a host nation. In the last ten years, a number of trafficking in persons allegations occurred in conjunction with contracting and subcontracting services tied to overseas contingency operations. In response, President Obama issued EO 13627, Strengthening Protections Against Trafficking in Persons in Federal Contracts, which calls for stronger prohibitions on contractor engagement in human trafficking-related activities, new tailored compliance measures particularly in at-risk industries and sectors, and additional training in support of monitoring, identification, and compliance efforts....
