Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Traces of Epic Influence in the Tragedies of Aeschylus: A Dissertation Presented to the Faculty of Bryn Mawr College for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy I was born in Newport, Rhode Island, June 6, 1868, received my early training in the public schools of that city, and was graduated from the Rogers High School in July, 1885. In September of the same year I entered Bryn Mawr College, where I chose for my Major studies Greek and Latin, and took elective Post-Major courses in these subjects and in Sanskrit. June 6, 1889, I received the degree A. B. from Bryn Mawr College, and was awarded the Fellowship in Greek for the following year. For four years I was enrolled at Bryn Mawr as a graduate student in Greek, Latin and Sanskrit, although during two years (1890-92) I gave part of my time to teaching students preparing for college. In the year 1892-93 I held the American Fellowship of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, and continued my studies at Bryn Mawr College. In June, 1893,...
