On a green card draw a large globe or aquarium. Tell the children that they shall be fishers of men, that each new member brought is a fish caught, and cut tiny fish from white paper, giving them a gold-fish appearance by the use of crayons of all colors, and paste one of these in the bowl for each new member, writing the name of the new member above it and the name of the one bringing that person below. Opening Exercises. Prayer, Psalm, Roll Call, Minutes, Offering, Hymn. Bible Lesson. The Good Samaritan. The road from Jerusalem to Jericho was dark and stony, with mountains on either side. Often robbers hid behind the rocks. One day a man was traveling along this road, when robbers sprang out and took all that he had and left him wounded in the road. Soon a priest came that way and when he saw the wounded man he turned, walked over to the other side of the road and passed him by. Next a Levite, a man from the Temple, too, came along, and when he saw the man and found that he was not of his class he, too, passed by on the other side of the road. Then a Samaritan, a man of another class, hated by the Jews, came along; surely he would turn aside. But when he saw the sick man he hurried to him, poured soothing oil on his...
