Price analysis may be accomplished in various ways, including the comparison of price quotations submitted, market prices, and similar indicia, together with discounts. Costs analysis is the review and evaluation of each element of cost to determine reasonableness, allocability, and allowability. In October 2000, the Association awarded a sole source fixed price research contract for a two-year period with an anticipated 1-year option, for a total contract price of 750, 000, to the University of Tulsa. The Association did not provide any support to demonstrate the selection process for this contract, or that a cost or pricing analysis was conducted. Our review disclosed that a former Association board member was instrumental in soliciting the University for this contract. Prior to the award of contract, the former board member was hired by the University. Accordingly, because of a lack of competition and a cost or pricing analysis, there was no assurance that the paid contract costs were...
