He s hired Driscoll Investigations to prove his innocence and they have only thirteen days to accomplish it. Talk about being tried in the media. On top of all that, her assistant s first baby is due any second, her scary smart admin still doesn t relate well to humans, and her police detective husband insists her client is guilty. About this marriage thing-it s unknown territory, but it sure beats ten years of living with 150 nuns. Giulia s ownership of Driscoll Investigations hasn t changed her passion for justice from her convent years. But the more dirt she digs up, the more she s worried her efforts will help a murderer escape. As the client accuses DI of dragging its heels on purpose, Giulia thinks The Silk Tie Killer might be choosing one of his ties for her own neck.
