Not illustrated. 1989 Excerpt: . . . 1 (name and address) and 2 (social security number). This is a good time to point out the importance of accuracy. If any student does not have a social security number, tell him or her to apply for one, using Form SS-5, available from your local social security office. 2. Before proceeding, look at the question of whether some students might be exempt from withholding. Your resources for discussing this issue are the instructions for Form W-4 and handout 2A-1, Are You Exempt from Withholding which guides the reader step-by-step through the decision-making process. (Section C of the software supplement also addresses this issue.) Exempt students would complete only lines 1, 2, and 6 of Form W-4. 3. Next, students will have to think about the number of allowances they claim. You may use the worksheet on the front of Form W-4 or the optional software to help them. Explain...
