Gods and the City (Paperback)

By Steve Statham

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For a thousand years, the new gods of mankind have protected the remnants of humanity. Reduced to a handful of survivors after a devastating alien invasion, a desperate human race accepted these gods as defenders against the terrors of a hostile universe. These mighty deities opened hidden pathways through space to remote outposts where human civilization could be rebuilt. The greatest of these redoubts is The City, a domed jewel on a small moon that circles a stormy gas giant planet. The god Tower is its protector. But when The City is assaulted by a power rivaling even that of the guardian god, the burden of protecting mankind s future will fall to others. And what can mere men and women do against forces that can reshape and manipulate the universe itself? Talia is a Radiant Acolyte in the temple of the gods. She knows the secrets and history of mankind s protectors better than anyone. Mik the Fixer is a skilled technician who can see through the dazzling magic that powers The City to the truth that...
