Methuen Publishing Ltd, United Kingdom, 2007. Hardback. Book Condition: New. annotated edition. 148 x 100 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. John Betjeman (1906-1984) was not only one of the best-loved Englishmen of the twentieth century, he was also the people s favourite poet and champion of many causes linked to the preservation of Britain s heritage. Whether those causes concerned buildings, bridges or railway branch lines, Betjeman was a feared adversary of bureaucratic excesses. This delightful little book is a celebration of his love of railways and rail travel. Ten letters selected by his daughter, Candida Lycett Green, each describe a journey that he made or that he planned to make or that he planned for a friend or relative. Jonathan Glancey has added his own words to each letter; words that set the scene, bring the letters to life, that describe Betjeman s moods - humorous, mischievous, brisk for business - and above all, remind us of the age of the steam locomotive in Britain and the many stations closed and track miles lost during the sixties and seventies.
