Jackson who took his place in the 6th inning, had a little more speed, but was not much more effective. Of the other new men Stadie 1902 Sci. and Rogers 1901 Law, made the best showing. Stadie made a good back stop and batted in excellent form. He seem. d to lose his head a lit tie once or twice and showed a lack of experience in sizing up the batters Rogers played a quick, snappy game, handling several difficult grounders in good form. His stick work also was good. K older at 1st base played his game well, but was a trifle slow. Tilt at second was a little disappointing, though he shows promise of making a good man. He seemed to be at a loss in knowing how to handle short out-field flies, and made one error on a ground...
