Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Committee on Unemployment Insurance in Agriculture 4. The terms of the reference did not appear to contemplate the consideration of any method of dealing with unemployment in agriculture other than by insurance under the Unemployment Insurance Act, but the Committee considered that proposals for a purely voluntary scheme outside the Act should not be excluded. There are three methods by which insurance against unemployment may be possible: (1) by the inclusion of the industry of agriculture in the general scheme provided by the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920, (2) by the adoption of a special scheme for agriculture under Section 18 of the Act, or (3) by a purely voluntary scheme outside the Act. Before either of these methods could be adopted certain preliminaries are necessary. 5. By virtue of paragraph a in Part II. of the First Schedule to the Act of 1920 employment in agriculture, including horticulture and forestry, is excepted from the scope of the insurance scheme, and neither employers nor workers in that industry are liable to pay the contributions required of employers and workers in almost every other industry. But by Section 4 The Minister (of Labour) may, with the approval of the Treasury by order provide for including among the persons employed within the meaning of this Act any persons engaged in any of the excepted employments specified in Part II. of the First Schedule to this Act, in any class or description of the persons so engaged, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as may be specified in the Order. Before any such Order is made a draft thereof shall be laid before each House...
