M. S. R. James next read a paper on Assistants associations and clubs for self-improvement. This paper dealt entirely with this work as carried on in England. It presented a very interesting review of its development, and the paper will appear in full in a future number of Public Libraries. Mr Brett next talked on the subject of Library examination and credentials, in which he advocated an examining board before which those who desire to do library work shall present themselves for exainination, receiving a certificate which shall be current in any part...
