The fund accounts are kept under the name of each donor. For keeping the accounts within the city appropriation, two sheets (Library account and Building account) 17 inches wide, by 16 inches long, are tabulated showing in detail expenditures for various purposes. (See fig. 1.) These sheets are ruled in red into 14 columns of dollars and cents, with a space 3 inches wide at the left side where the dates of the monthly meetings of the board are given. In the columns opposite are shown expenditures for the month. Sheet 1 shows: --Books, periodicals, binding, printing, supplies, stationery, express, postage, sundries, insurance, salaries, extra help, --total by month. Under these headings are entered the separate bills, and at the end of the month (e. g. January), the total expense for each of the divisions is given, and a line...
